

Mickey Yokoi, PGA

RESUME

Alhambra Golf Course

2017 – Current | Class A PGA Golf Instructor

California State University – Long Beach

2011 – 2017 | Head Golf Coach, Men's

Arizona State University

2002 – 2011 | Associate Head Golf Coach, Men's

2001 – 2002 | Head Golf Coach, Women's

1997 – 2001 | Assistant Golf Coach, Men's

Country Club of the North

1994 – 1996 | Head Golf Professional

The premier private country club in Southwest Ohio featuring the only Jack Nicklaus Signature designed golf course in the area.

BIO

Yokoi played collegiate golf at UCLA from 1977-1982, earning All-America and All-Pac-10 honors as well as playing on the 1982 Pac-10 Championship team alongside Corey Pavin and Steve Pate.

After leaving UCLA, Yokoi went on to compete on the Asian Tour, the Canadian and Australian PGA Tours, as well as the PGA Hogan Tour and has been a member of the PGA Tour since 1994. After his professional career, Yokoi returned to UCLA to complete his studies and earned a bachelor's degree in psychology in 1997.

Yokoi has studied with Mac O'Grady, David Leadbetter, Hank Haney and Jim Flick.

PROFESSIONAL ACHIEVEMENTS

Finalist in PGA Tour School in 1982, 1985 and 1990

Finalist in European Tour School in 1989

Player in 1981 US Open

Player in US Amateurs in 1978 and 1982

Player in US Public Links in 1980

Finalist in Senior PGA Tour School in 2009

Set 2 course records and shot 59 at age 60

COACHING ACHIEVEMENTS

Yokoi coach and produced 30 All-Americans honors and 6 Academic All-Americans.

Arizona State University

Yokoi began working fall of 1996 as an assistant to Randy Lein in the Men's program. During his tenure, Yokoi helped capture five Pac-10 Conference titles, four Regional Championships and produce several top players:

- 1999 and 2000 English Amateur Champion Paul Casey
- 2000 U.S. Amateur Champion Jeff Quinney
- 2001 U.S. Public Links Champion Chez Reavie
- 2003 NCAA Champion Alejandro Canizares
- 2009 European Amateur Champion Stephan Gross

Yokoi also served as the Women's Head Coach in 2001-2002 and led them to a ninth-place NCAA finish.

California State University – Long Beach

During his time as the Men's Head Coach, Yokoi earned the 2012 Big West Coach of the Year.